Offerings and Sales at the Richmond Tobacco Exchange...Internal Revenue Collections Foreign Advices,

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Operations at the Stock Exchange were resumed to-day with a firm market for securities, the receipt of higher cables from London having strengthened prices. The retirement of the Benedict faction from the Chicago Gas Company's directory and the election of the Lincoln-Doane party in the interest of the Standard Ollied to a rise in Chicago Gas certificates, and Sugar was advanced on the introduction of the Aldrich resolution in the Senate yesterday in the matter of sugar tariffs. The rise in prices at the start was equal to 140% per cent, but the sales subsequently lost in a break in Jersey Central and Lead. Jersey Central dropped from $4% to $2% and Lead from 25 to 26% Later on the former rallied to $3% and the latter to 27% Jersey Central was depressed on sales of both long and short stock, the general impression being that the annual report will be very unfavorable. National Lead's weakness was due to the company's annual statement, which shows a surplus of $372,170, a decrease of $278,184, after a payment of all charges and four dividends of $1,643,250 on the preferred and three dividends of $672,170 on the common. Action on the dividend on the common is stated for Thursday next, but the street inclines to the opinion that none will be declared. Towards the close Sugar became more active and moved to 9246652%. The general list moved up in sympathy and closed firm. Net changes show gains of '4 10 1% ner cent. Interior Conduit made a further advance of 1% per cent. 10 40. Lead lost 1, and Jersey Central '8 per cent. The sales were 70.000 shares, of which 44,600 were listed. The bond market was higher. NEW YORK, Feb. 16.-Operations at

MR. C. B. ROUSS, OF NEW YORK, WRITES A LETTER

In Which He Says That His Proposed Memorial Association Will Not Antagonize the Richmond Organization.

The following letters-one from Mr. C. B. Rouss to Mr. M. L. Van Doren, and the other Mr. Van Doren's replyare fully self-explanatory, and will both be read with much pleasure and interest in Richmond. Mr. Rouss writes as fol-

New York city, February 5, 1895.
Mr. M. L. Van Doren, Richmond, Va.:
Dear Sir,—Volume 22 of the Southern Historical Society Papers contains an article in relation to my efforts to secure the establishment of a National Memorial Association. It states: "Mr. Van Doren's suggestion that the general association proposed and the ladies of Richmond be joined in common effort and purpose, seemed, from the response of Mr.
Rouss, to be lavorably entertained by him."

Rouss, to be favorably entertained by him."

Inasmuch as the proposed memorial association is now an assured success, and as an impression prevails to some extent in Richmond that its establishment will be detrimental to the "Confederate Memorial Literary Society." I wish to emphasize my repeated disclaimers that any such purpose or intention was ever entertained. I would never suggest or support any plan that threatened or endangered the memorial fabric which our noble women have erected, with so much of loving devotion and unremitting toil. I do not believe that there is a Confederate veteran in the land who wishes eo deprive them of the mementoes and sacred relies that they have collected, or who would deny to them all the consideration, credit and honor which are so deservedly their cue.

deny to them all the consideration, credit and honor which are so deservedly their due.

As I stand related to this memorial movement, and, under the plan suggested in my circular letters, I can express no opinion as to location, I am at liberty to say, however, that should the choice fall upon Richmond I would urge the board of administrators to unite with the ladies of Richmond "in common effort and purpose" in such manner that the latter might preserve the identity of their association and not be compelled to relinquish the custodianship of their treasures. The purposes of the Richmond association and the national association are the same—to perpetuate the memories of the South's magnificent struggle for civil liberty, and to furnish to posterity enduring proofs of the courage, sacranese and devotion to duty of the soldier. These objects are paramount to all other considerations, and concessions, however great, become a duty when they tend to effect them. While there are ardent advocates of the location of the mational association in different cities, it is gratifying to know that there will be an unantmous acquiescence in the decision of the board of administrators.

That body may be safely trusted to sit fairly in judgment on the comparative claims and inducements offered. The board will be convened previous to the annual reunion of the veteran associations at Houston, Tex., in May. The place of meeting has not yet been determined upon.

I am reported in the article referred to

of meeting has not yet been determined upon.

I am reported in the article referred to in the Southern Historical Society Papers as proposing that each veteran camp should subscribe at least ten dollars to the national institution. That is incorrect. Subscriptions are solicited from individuals, and not from organized bodies. The commanders of camps were addressed in order to reach the members. There appeared to be no other practicable means. Of the large numbers of assurances of contributions already received, every one has come from an individual, without any relation to his connection with a camp. There will be many subscribers who did not bear arms in the great conflict, but who sympathize with the Lost Cause and with those, who upheld it.

The mention of your name in connection with a trip in the article relating to the the Lost Cause and with these, who upheld it.

The mention of your name in connection with mine in the article relating to the memorial association, is my excuse for inflicting this long letter upon you. I am quite sure that you will be glad to correct the mistaken impression that prevails in your city, and I beg that you will do no whenever occasion presents.

The expressed apprehension of antagonism between the existing and contemplated memorial organizations, and the publication of a resolution reported to have been adopted at a meeting of veteran camps and other delegates at Murphy's Hotel, in December last, have been made the ground of a statement that the Confederate element of Richmond is opposed institution. This is an injustice to the centre of memorial sentiment and work.

February II, 1895.

Mr. C. B. Rouss, New York Chy:

Dear Sir,—Yours of February 5th has been received. I am surprised that any one in Richmond or elsewhere should think your plan for a national memorial association was antagonistic to the "Confederate Memorial Literary Society," of Richmond, and my idea in writing to you was that as the two efforts were so directly in the same line, that it was a pity not to consolidate them. The ladies, in their ownership of the "White House of the Confederacy," possess a relic of the greatest interest, which seems to me to be the fittest foundation on which to build up a collection of interesting memorials of our struggie.

At the same time, I appreciate your position, and can understand readily that you caimot interfere with the board of administrators in their selection of a location for the national memorial.

No one who knows of your actions in matters pertaining to old Confederate soldiers can doubt your devotion to the Loat Cause, or could believe that you would in any way hinder those who wish to do honor to the memory of its defenders. I most sincerely hope that the board of administrators may select Richmond as the most suitable location, and that the united efforts of both soc ettes board of administrators may select Richmond as the most suitable location, and that the united efforts of both societies may culminate in a memorial worthy of the cause and the men whose memories they wish to perpetuate.

Thanking you for the opportunity your letter affords me of correcting a false in pression, if such impression exists, I assure you I shall always do all in my power to place your intentions and efforts in their true and proper light before our people. forts in their tue

With my best wishes for the fullest success of both of the societies, and with a tincere hope that they may ultimately

PLYMOUTH ROCK PANTS.

The Big Corporation That Makes Them in the Hands of a Receiver.

A Boston telegram announces that the Plymouth Rock Pants Company has been

A Boston telegram announces that the Plymouth Rock Pants Company has been placed in the hands of a receiver on the ground of alleged insolvency. The Plymouth Rock Pants Company has quite a large number of agencies in the South, and several in Virginia.

The agency in Richmond has been established for years. It is at present presided over by Mr. H. E. Strudwick, an Englishman, and seems to have been doing a good business.

The dispatch referred to says:
"Judge Colt, in the United States Circuit Court, yesterday appointed George L. Huntress receiver for the Plymouth Rock Pants Company. The appointment is made in a bill in equity brought by Thomas H. Snow, administrator, against the company. Snow is a creditor of the concern for over $60,000 on promissory notes and for money loaned.

"The company was organized under the laws of New Jersey, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000—$800,000 common and $200,000 preferred stock. The ground upon which the receiver is appointed is the alleged insolvency of the concern.

"Mr. Huntress said yesterday afternoon that he thought the nominal assess of the company would be as large, if not larger, than the liabilities. He could not tell, and does not know, he said, the cause of the company's trouble. The concern, he said, would continue in business for the present at least."

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE MOVEMENT

Not All the Methodist Christian Endeavor Not All the Methodist Christian Endeavor
S c'-ties Will be Changed.
The concerted action on the part of the Methodist preachers of Richmond to establish Epworth leagues in all the Methodist churches of the city has caused quite a flutter in those caurches where the Christian Endeavor societies exist.
Christian Endeavor societies have from time to time existed in most all of the Methodist churches of Richmond, and by the influence of the pastors were converted into Epworth Leagues, and afterwards died natural deaths.

For this reason the Christian Endeavor societies are loath to surrender their organizations. The statements that have been made that the existing societies will, as a matter of course, be changed into Epworth Leagues, and that certain members who belong to the State organization will withdraw, are pronounced, on good authority, to be erroneous. on good authority, to be erroneous.

It is said that no change is contemplated in one church, and that at least one other change being will not consent to any change being

The clause in the discipline of the The clause in the discipline of the Churca bearing on the subject provides that Epworth leagues shall be established in each church when practicable. Some of the ministers construe this as being mandatory, and are naturally anxious to be able to report to conference that they have established Epworth leagues in their churches. The easiest way to secure one is to convert the Christian Endeavor societies into leagues, if the pastor can gain the consent of the members.

Notice has been given of the change to take place this afternoon by Rev. J. Moore, at St. James church.

In the near future the Redemptorist Fathers will give a mission at St. Joseph's church.

Next Tuesday night there will be a grand entertainment at St. Mary's Hall for the benefit of the building fund of the new St. Mary's church. A delightful comedy, entitled "A Confidential Clerk," will be given by the young men of the Social Home Band, assisted by several young ladies of the concregation. Dr. lioge's Anaivers ry.

The ladles' committee who have in charge the celebration of Dr. Hoge's anniversary held a meeting Friday afternoon and arranged further details in connection with this interesting event.

The affair has grown to enormous proportions, and it is probable that even the great hall of the Masonic Temple will be inadequate to hold the crowd on the night of the public reception.

The attendance of the First regiment, the Richmond Blues and other military will largely swelf the crowd, and the ladies will have a large work in serving refreshments to so great a throng.

There are, however, many willing hands, and Dr. Hoge's congregation and friends intend to make the event in every way worthy of the eminent minister in whose honor it is given.

«> PRICE CO. Extraordinary Silk Sale!

Commencing TO-MORROW MORNING we shall offer some extraordinary values in Silks. We were the largest southern buyers at the great sale of Silks held in New York last week. The goods offered were especially made and designed for high-class trade. They & Co., of New York; Strawbridge & Clothier and Wanamaker, of were eagerly taken by such well-known silk houses as James McCreary Philadelphia; Marshal Field & Co., of Chicago, and others of like standing. When these houses bay freely it must be a good thing. We knew it, and our Mr. Fourqurean says he never before bought such values for the money. Seven thousand dollars' worth of these Silks are here and they al! go on sale to-morrow at prices we don't expect to see duplicated this year, and possibly we never will see them so cheap again. As this is destined to be the largest silk season ever known-silks being in greater favor than ever before-we advise our friends and patrons to examine this lot closely. Such choice values
